

THE NICENE CREED

In front of the Altar, the Profession of Faith is made:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, all bow.

*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The following prayers are recited for the intentions of the Holy Father:

Our Father; 3 Hail Marys; Glory be Father

If the one presiding is an ordained minister,
the pilgrimage concludes with a blessing.
If the person presiding is a layperson, the following is said:

Let us bless the Lord.

All answer: Thanks be to God.

Invocation to the Blessed Virgin Mary

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided.
Inspired with this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy
hear and answer me. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE PILGRIMAGE TO THE JUBILEE CHURCH

Gathered in the Church or place of departure, the pilgrimage leader introduces the celebration:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All answer: Amen.

Leader: May the God of Hope, who in the Word made Flesh Fills us with every joy and peace in our faith,
through the power of the Holy Spirit,
be among us.

All answer: Blessed be the Lord, our hope.

Scripture Reading:

A READING FROM THE LETTER TO THE ROMANS. 5,1-5

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

The word of the Lord.

All answer: Thanks be to God.

After the reading, a brief silence is observed.

Leader: Let us set out in the name of Christ:
The way who leads to the Father,
The truth who makes us free,
The life who renews the world.

The pilgrimage to the Jubilee Church begins carrying the Jubilee cross

During the pilgrimage psalms can be sung. Taking into account the time it may take to reach the Pilgrim Church, some decades of the Rosary may also be recited. Approaching the Church doors, a brief reflection takes place:

“Hope finds its supreme witness in the Mother of God. In the Blessed Virgin, we see that hope is not naive optimism but a gift of grace amid the realities of life ... At the foot of the cross, she witnessed the passion and death of Jesus, her innocent son. Overwhelmed with grief, she nonetheless renewed her “fiat”, never abandoning her hope and trust in God... In the travail of that sorrow, offered in love, Mary became our Mother, the Mother of Hope ... amid the tempests of this life, the Mother of God comes to our aid, sustains us and encourages us to persevere in hope and trust.” (Spes non confundit, 24)

Then the following psalm is recited as the pilgrims enter the Church:

PSALM 122 (121)

I was glad when they said to me,
“Let us go to the house of the Lord!”
Our feet have been standing within your gates, O Jerusalem!
Jerusalem, built as a city
which is bound firmly together,
to which the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord,
as was decreed for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the Lord.
There thrones for judgment were set,
the thrones of the house of David.
Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!
“May they prosper who love you!
Peace be within your walls,
and security within your towers!”
For my brethren and companions’ sake
I will say, “Peace be within you!”
For the sake of the house of the Lord our God,
I will seek your good.

Upon entering the church, the following Psalm is recited:

PSALM 83 (84)

How lovely is your dwelling place,
Lord, mighty God!
My soul yearns and pines
for the courts of the Lord.
My heart and my flesh
cry out for the living God.

Even the sparrow finds a home,
and the swallow a nest
in which she puts her young—
Your altars, O Lord of hosts,
my king and my God!
Blessed they who dwell in your house!
continually they praise you.
Blessed the one who finds his refuge in you and has your ways in his heart.
Passing through the valley of tears
these are turned into fresh springs.
Even the first rain
adorns him in blessings
His strength grows along the path
Until he stands before God in Sion.
Lord God of hosts, listen to my prayer,
Listen to me God of Jacob.
O God, behold our shield,
and look upon the face of your anointed.
I had rather live one day in your courts
than a thousand elsewhere;
I had rather lie at the threshold of the house of my God
than dwell in the tents of the wicked.
For the Lord God is my light and my shield.
The Lord grants grace and glory.
He does not refuse good things to those who walk in the paths of integrity.
Lord of hosts, blessed is the one who takes refuge in you.
